Whitehall, August 11.

THe following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common-Council of Your Majesty's Town and Borough of Colchester, in Common-Council Assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects cannot without infinite Astonishment, take notice how that (notwithstanding the constant experience of Peace and Plenty under the Influence of Your Majesty's Gracious Government ever since Your Majesty's happy and Miraculous Restauration) there should remain any such Wicked, Bloody, and Ill-principled Men, as by the Good Providence of God (whom we desire for this to Adore) are now discovered to be Conspiring the Destruction of Your Majesty's Sacred Person, and Your Dearest Brother his Royal Highness the Duke of York, and consequently the Subverting of the Antient Government of this Kingdom, and bringing upon us unspeakable Miseries and Confusions.

And, as we do with an Unanimous Consent declare our utmost Abhorrence of this Horrid Conspiracy and all Principles that lead to it, so do we heartily Congratulate Your Majesty and his Royal Highness's safe Deliverance from that Traiterous and Hellish Design; and we do humbly beseech Your Majesty to be assured of our full and fixt Resolutions, that we shall with the utmost hazard of our Lives and Fortunes defend Your Majesty's Royal Person, and the Government as by Law Established both in Church and State, against all Pretences whatsoever; And shall always Pray for Your Majesty's long, peaceable, and happy Reign over us.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, Assembled at a Quarter Sessions, together with the Grand Jury of the County of Brecknock, July 10. 1683.

May it please your Majesty,

THough Obedience and Loyalty to your Sacred Majesty, be a Duty incumbent on us from God Almighty, and that a publique Profession of it would seem unnecessary; Yet, when we live to see private Associations and Contrivances, grown up to the extremest height of Barbarism and Impiety, even to attempt Assassinations against the Lives of your Sacred Majesty, and your Royal Brother (The Duke) at one Blow designing to Destroy your Royal Family, the rooting out the Established Religion, and Subversion of Monarchy; We may be allowed (even by those that cloak their Disaffection under the names of a Moderate and Sober Party) to own our Allegiance, and to declare, that with Horror and Amazement we detest so Treasonable an Attempt, and that (as in Duty, and all imaginable Gratitude we ought) we will be always ready, with our Hearts and Arms, Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Sacred Majesty, your Lawful Successors, our Established Religion, and the Government, against any Conspiracies or Attempts whatsoever. And (while we live) we shall always praise the God of our Salvation for your Majesties many Miraculous Preservations, ever pray for your perpetual Prosperity, and (when commanded) put the Duty we thus own into Act, as becomes,

(May it please Your Majesty,)

Your Majesties most Duty, most Loyal, and most Obedient Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Burgesses of Your Majesty's Corporation of Brecknock, July 9. 1683.

May it please your Majesty,

YOur Majesty having been graciously pleased to accept of the Sincere Expressions of our Duty, at a time, when your Sacred Majesty was threatned with Treasonable Associations, and Alarm'd with multitudes of Ingrateful Enemies. We (Your Majesty's ever Loyal Subjects) cannot but hope for your Majesty's pardon, if once more we lay our selves at your Majesties Feet, to declare our Amazement at, and Detestation of those horrid, damn'd Conspiracies that have (lately) been Contrived against your Sacred Person, and your Royal Brother; and to praise Almighty God, while we breath, for Your Miraculous Preservation. And we humbly beg Your Sacred Majesty to believe, That as we shall always pray for your Sacred Person, and the happy continuance of the Government, in your Majesty, and your Lawful Successors, So we shall readily expose our Lives and Fortunes, and all that's dear to us, in Your, and Their defence, whenever your Majesty shall please to lay your Commands upon us. And this with all Sincerity and truth from the Hearts of

(May it please your Majesty)

Your Majesties most Obedient, Dutiful, and Loyal Subjects and Servants.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesties most Faithful, Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of Your Corporation and Borough of Ripon. Having in our Serious thoughts considered the Horrid and Treasonable Practices used in the late Times, not only against the Sacred Person of your Royal Father, of ever blessed Memory, but even against Monarchy it self, the Dissolution whereof, together with our Religion, Laws, Rights, and Liberties, seem'd fully Accomplished. And finding the same Devilish Principle still working ever since your Majesties happy Restauration, which is now broke out in the late Damnable Conspiracy against your Majesties Royal Person, and that of your only Brother the Duke of York, intending in that Blow the total Ruine of this Flourishing Kingdom. Our Horror and Detestation of this Villany is not to be equalled by any thing, but our Joy for your Majesties and the Dukes deliverance from it. Humbly begging of your Majesty to accept this hearty Congratulation; And we humbly beseech your Majesty to believe, that we shall all of us in our Stations be ready to assist your Majesty against all Attempts and Conspiracies of what nature soever, for the preservation of your Majesties Sacred Person, and Government, your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and the Protestant Religion as now by Law established. Imploring that Almighty Power, whose Providence has watcht over You still

ſtill to preſerve your Majeſty and your Royal Family to Rule over theſe Kingdoms to all Ages;

Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Faithful Subjects, the Grand Jury Sworn to enquire for the body of the County of Montgomery, are very apprehenſive of a very Barbarous and Villanous Conſpiracy againſt the Lives of your moſt Sacred Majeſty and your dear Brother James Duke of York, managed and ſecretly carried on by Fanatical, Atheiſtical, Diſcontented, Deſperate Villains, apparently deſigning the utter Ruine of this Flouriſhing Church and Kingdom, and Involving the whole Nation in a Sea of Blood, had not Almighty Providence once more moſt Miraculouſly delivered You from the hands of Blood-thirſty, and unreaſonable Men.

In a deep Senſe of which ſignal Mercy we offer up to Almighty God, our unfeigned Prayers of Praiſe and Thankſgiving, for your Majeſties moſt Providential Preſervation, and continual Prayers, that after your Majeſties very long and happy Reign over us, your Lawful Heirs and Succeſſors, may ever Succeed in this Monarchy; And we offer our Lives, Fortunes, and all that is dear to us, to defend You, againſt all Traiterous Aſſociations and Helliſh Conſpiracies whatſoever. And we likewiſe earneſtly deſire the Concurrences of the Juſtices of the Peace to this our humble Addreſs.

We the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County, that are preſent at the General Seſſions of the Peace held at Montgomery, for the ſaid County, the 12th day of July, 1683. have Subſcribed our Names hereunto.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of your Majeſties Juſtices of Peace, and of the Grand Jury at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, held at Hexham for the County of Northumberland, the Eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord God one thouſand ſix hundred eighty and three.

Moſt Dread Soveraign,

WE your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being convinced, that through the Ambitious Machinations of ſome, no leſs ungrateful than Traiterous, a moſt Helliſh Conſpiracy hath been contrived, to compaſs, at one blow, the Death and Deſtruction of your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, and of your Royal and only Brother James Duke of York, as if nothing leſs could ſatisfie the implacable Rage and Malice of theſe Monſters of men, acted by Fanatical and Republican Principles, than the utter Extirpation of the Royal Lineage, nay and of Monarchy it ſelf, which muſt neceſſarily have brought on the whole Nation, all the Horrid Calamities, that the Subverſion of our Religion, the Entailing of a Bloody War, and the erecting of an Arbitrary Power in the hands of our Fellow Subjects, could poſſibly produce, had not the Providence of the Almighty brought to light their Hidden Deeds of darkneſs.

Hereupon we being highly ſenſible of this bleſſed Deliverance of your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, and of your Deareſt and only Brother, wrought by the Finger of God, amongſt many other ſignal Mercies, do hereby ſolemnly declare, that We will to our utmoſt Abilities oppoſe all ſuch Execrable Deſigns whatſoever: And for the Defence of your Majeſties Perſon and Lawful Succeſſors, the Royal Prerogative and our Religion as by Law eſtabliſhed, do with unalterable Loyalty proſtrate our Lives and Fortunes at your Majeſties Feet, in whoſe cuſtody alone, under Heaven, they ought to be intruſted, or can be ſecure; being ready with Obedience and Reſolution upon your Royal Summons, in this Extraordinary Juncture, to appear with the beſt aſſiſtance we can make for the Defence of your Majeſties Perſon, and the Preſervation of the Crown in its true courſe of Deſcent.

Theſe hearty and unfeigned Reſolutions are Reinforced with our beſt Devotions to the King of Heaven, that he would ſtill guard your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, from all Conſpiracies of Blood-Thirſty and Deceitful men, and that he would long proſper your Majeſty and your Royal Family for a Bleſſing to ſucceeding Generations.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Bakewell in and for Your Majeſty's County of Derby, the 10th. day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majeſty's moſt happy Reign.

WE your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, Having from your Majeſties Royal Proclamations received Information to our great Horror and Amazement, of a Diſcovery of a moſt Traiterous, Horrid, and Damnable Conſpiracy of divers Diſloyal and Deſperate Perſons, to Kill and deſtroy your Royal Perſon, and the Perſon of your Deareſt Brother James Duke of York, who for the effecting the ſame, have held ſeveral Conſultations to levy War and make an Inſurrection, and made great proviſion of Arms; a Deſign not only evidently tending to the preſent Deſtruction of your moſt Sacred Perſon, (the beſt of Princes) but alſo of Your beſt Subjects, being perſons again ſo wickedly Audacious, as to ſpeak to the People the very ſame Prologue, and to enter upon the ſame Præludе that preceded that Execrable Tragedy, the horrid Murther and Regicide of your Royal Father, of ever bleſſed Memory, and in one and the ſame Age, endeavouring to delude the People over again under the ſame ſpecious pretences of Religion, and the Liberty of the Subject; thereby not only deſigning to wound the Forms of the moſt glorious Government of the World, both of Church and State, but to bring us and our Poſterity into Confuſion Anarchy, Miſery, and Blood.

Therefore as we are Chriſtians and your Majeſties dutiful Subjects, having in the firſt place offered up our moſt Solemn Thanks to Almighty God for his watchful and often repeated Providence, in bringing to light this Impious & former Execrable Deſigns: We do in the next place think our ſelves Obliged in Conſcience, and by an Indiſpenſable Duty, humbly to offer to your Majeſty, our deep and Loyal Reſentments of the ſame, and do faithfully aſſure your Majeſty that we value no Intereſt in the World comparable to your Majeſties Service and Safety, and are fully determined in defence thereof, and of Your Heirs and Lawful Succeſſors, and Government eſtabliſh'd both of Church and State, to expoſe our Lives and Fortunes, and in our ſeveral ſtations will uſe our utmoſt endeavours to diſcover and bring to Juſtice all Aſſociators, Conſpirators, and Traitors, whatſoever. And we do declare, That if there ſhould be any in this County that ſhall refuſe to joyn with us in theſe our Reſentments, we'll all deem ſuch no better than Confederates and Approvers of the ſaid wicked Conſpiracy.

And we do further aſſure your Majeſty, that theſe our Reſolutions had been more early declared to your moſt Sacred Majeſty, had there been an occaſion ſooner to have convened us into this Body. Neither do they proceed from the Examples of others who had an oportunity to be before us, as from our own Naturally Loyal inclinations, and are accompanied with our daily and hearty Prayers, that all your Majeſties Enemies may be ſpeedily diſcovered, vanquiſhed, and overcome, and that your Majeſty may have a long and proſperous Reign over us.

We your Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace for the County aforeſaid, Aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions aforeſaid, held for the ſaid County the Day and Year aboveſaid, do heartily Concur with the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury in this their Loyal Addreſs to your Majeſty, containing the Reſentments of the late horrid Conſpiracy. And in our Prayers for Your Majeſties health and Proſperity.

And though for the more timely ſignifying this our Loyalty to your moſt Sacred Majeſty, we preſent it attended only at preſent with the Subſcriptions of us and the Grand Jury, Yet we ſhall with as much Induſtry as may be, make a further Trial of the Loyalty of the reſt of your Majeſties Subjects in this County, in this particular, and doubt not but in a ſhort time to give your Majeſty a good account of the Hearty Concurrence of divers others being firmly fixt with the Grand Jury in their Reſolutions as to our Opinion of thoſe Perſons who ſhall refuſe to joyn with us therein.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe Your Sacred Majeſty,

WE your Majeſties truly Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council and Inhabitants of Your Antient Borough of Derby, Being deeply ſenſibly of the great Bleſſings we and the reſt of Your Domi-

Dominions have enjoyed, not only by your Majesties Miraculous and happy Restauration, but also by your Majesties gentle and Gracious Government; Cannot but with Horror and Amazement hear of the Bloody and wicked Conspiracies and Machinations of the Old Enemies of our Peace and Happiness. And we from the bottom of our Souls Praise and Magnifie the continued Mercies of our good God towards your Majesty and all us, in Detecting the late Horrid and Bloody Conspiracy against your Majesty and Royal Brother: And since it hath pleased Almighty God to deliver up so many of your Majesties and our Enemies into Your Hands, we hope, since Your Clemency hath had so ill Effect, your Majesty will be Graciously pleased, to Terrifie all wicked and Bloody Men from the like Attempts, by Your Exemplary Justice. And the great God of Heaven and Earth continue his Blessings to your Sacred Majesty, with a long, happy, peaceable, and prosperous Reign, and in length of time, with Happiness Eternal, and to all us in your Royal Family: That we may never want one thereof to sit upon your Royal Throne, whilst the Sun and Moon endureth, shall ever be the Cordial and hearty Prayers of

Your Sacred Majesty's truly Humble,
Dutiful, and Loyal Subjects

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Dread Soveraign,

WE your Majesties most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, Bayliffs and Burgesses of Cambridge, having with Horror and Amazement heard of a most wicked and detestable Conspiracy, contrived and entred into by Factious and Schismatical Persons, for the Compassing the Deaths of your Sacred Majesty, and his Royal Highness, your Dear Brother, and the Subverting the Government now by Law established, do with all Thankfulness and Joy acknowledge the Divine Mercy and Favour by a signal Providence, disappointing and discovering the Authors and Actors in that Horrid Conspiracy, to their just Punishment, and the eternal Reproach and Infamy of them, and all their Factious Abettors.

And, Dread Sir, with great Humility we crave leave to assure your Majesty, That as we shall daily offer up our sincere and fervent Prayers unto Almighty God by whom Kings Reign, still to protect and defend your Sacred and beloved Life, from all the wicked Attempts and Practices of the Enemies of your Person and Government. So will we ever stand firm in this Loyal Resolution, (as in duty bound) to adventure our Lives and Fortunes for the Defence of your Sacred Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as now by Law established, against all Traiterous Associations and Treasonable Attempts whatsoever. Dated under our Common Seal the seventeenth day of July, in the five and thirtieth year of your Majesties gracious Reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of your Majesties ancient Burrough of Newberry in the County of Berks; As also of the Grand Jury, Free-men and Inhabitants of the said Burrough; At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held for the said Burrough, on the 14th day of July 1683.

Dread Soveraign,

WE your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, duly considering the great and manifold Blessings of Almighty God vouchsafed to this Nation, in giving us so good and gracious a Prince to Reign over us, and the great Happiness, Peace and Tranquility we daily enjoy thereby, cannot without Horror and Amazement of mind, think of the many Impious and Wicked Designs and Contrivances of Ill-affected and Blood thirsty men, who under pretence of Religion and Reformation, have Conspired the Death and Destruction of your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, and of your Royal Brother the Duke of York; and the involving your Majesties Kingdoms in Anarchy, Blood and Confusion, whose unparalelled Villanies, by the Gracious Providence of Almighty God, have been lately brought to light and discovered

All which Damnable Plots, Conspiracies, and Associations, we do most heartily and sincerely detest and abhor, and will not cease to implore Almighty God, that the same may be yet more fully detected and brought to light, that so the Disturbers of your Majesties Government, and our Peace, may receive due Punishment.

And we most humbly crave leave, to assure your Sacred Majesty; (that as we are in duty bound) so we are unanimously resolved, to bear true Allegiance and Obedience to your Sacred Majesty, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and to assist your Sacred Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, together with all that is near and dear unto us, in the Defence of your Royal Person and Government, both in Church and State, as by Law is established.

To which we most Humbly add our daily Prayers, that Almighty God will be pleased of his infinite Goodness, to Grant your Sacred Majesty a long and prosperous Reign over us, to unite the Hearts of all Your Majesties Subjects, truly to Honour and Obey your Sacred Majesty as our Soveraign, and to Confound all the Hellish and Wicked Plots and Conspiracies of all your Majesties Enemies, against your Royal Person and Government.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester in Common Council Assembled, as well upon the Unanimous Presentment, and Subscriptions of the Grand Jury and Justices of the Peace, as all the rest of the Inhabitants of the said City, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in the Guild Hall, held there the Twelfth day of this instant July, and Sealed with the Common Seal of the said City, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

Most Dread Soveraign,

WE Your most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, Having with great Horror and Amazement, taken notice of a most Hellish and Bloody Conspiracy, contrived and carried on against your most Sacred Person and Dearest Brother, by the Devilish Joynt Consultations of sturdy Conventiclers and other Atheistical Persons, thereby to Involve your Kingdoms in Blood and Confusion, and utterly to destroy the best Religion and Government in the World.

Do in the first place render unto Almighty God our most hearty and unfeigned Thanks for discovering and preventing this their damnable Conspiracy, praying that the same Miraculous Providence may for ever guard and defend your Sacred Person and Throne.

And we do withal assure your Majesty that we shall be always ready with our best endeavours, and to our utmost powers (as in Duty bound) to disclose and make known all Treasons and Traiterous Conspiracies, and to bring the Authors of them to condign Punishment; and with our Lives and Fortunes from time to time assist and defend your Royal Person, State and Government, and your Lawful Heirs and Successors, against all Plots, Covenants, Associations, Conspiracies and Treasonable Practises whatsoever.

We are, Dread Sir, your Majesties
most Obedient Citizens and Subjects.

Dantzicke, August 7. The King of Poland uses all the diligence he can to draw his Forces together, being resolved to march in Person to the relief of Vienna; In order whereunto he arrived the 29. past at Cracaw, after having been to perform his Devotions at Crenstochow.

From the Imperial Camp near Presbourg, August 1. The Duke of Lorrain having received advice that Count Teckely marched towards Presbourg, having a body of Turks joyned with his own Troops, his Highness advanced towards them, but the Enemy upon the news of it, thought fit to retire, whereupon the Polish Troops under the Command of the Chevalier de Lubomirski were ordered to fall upon their Rear, the Duke of Lorrain following with the whole Army in Battalia; The Turks retired in much disorder towards Newheusel, and Count Teckely repassed the Waag, having lost a great many men, most of his Baggage, and a great number of Waggons laden with provisions, which were cut off by the Poles, who behaved themselves very well

Francfort, August 19. We have not by the last Letters from Lintz and Passaw any particular account of the Siege of Vienna, but in the general we are assured that the besieged make a brave defence, and that the place is in no danger as yet. The Auxilliary Troops of the Empire are hastning to their relief; and it's confidently said, that the
